(Moyer Studio)

First Congregational church was the scene of a pretty May wedding Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock when Miss Pearl Yvonne Sanborn became the bride of A. I. C. Robert Stuart Burbank. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stryborn of R. 1. Traverse City and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George Burbank of Brewton, N. Y. Dr. Howard R. Fowne performed the ceremony before a background of pink and white gladioli and daffodils in the presence of 60 guests.

Rev. Konradheiser played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Joyce Cole who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her ballroom length strapless gown with white nylon lace over satin with which she wore a long sleeved bolero jacket fastened on the neckline to the waist with self covered buttons. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a tiara of lace. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Miss Sylvia Sanborn, sister of the bride was the maid of honor. She wore a strapless turquoise and white length dress with a matching stole. Her accessories were white chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by A. C. Dean Hendericks and seating the guests were Calvin Fuller and Warren Wheelock.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue nylon dress with white dots and white accessories and the groom's in a white suit with a black and white patterned shirt with white accessories. Both mothers had costumes of light blue.

At the reception held in the church Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanborn acted as hosts. Phyllis Sidoriski was in charge of the guest book.

For her wedding trip Miss Sanborn wore a suit of pink gabardine with white accessories. While her husband is serving overseas, Miss Sanborn will reside with her parents. Upon his return they will make their home in New York.

Guests came from New York, Muskegon, Cedar Point and Old Mission to attend the wedding.
